I have never knowingly given Republicans bad advice, and if were not satisfied that this "one man" is conducting the campaign for his own advancement and against the best interests of the Republican party,1 would not have written you this letter. He has forced himself to the front as the sole issue in this canvass, and his success means the defeat of every old Virginia Republican. Victory for him means six more years of odious party management, and as a fellow soldier, who has fought hard in many bitter struggles for the maintenance of Republican princi ples, I do most earnestly urge yo to diligently labor for the defeat o the most arregant and selfish boss ism that over afflicted a party or a peorle. It is indeed a fight for political freedom. Very truly yours, JAS. D. BRADY.
